Harry Payne Whitney Uncovers Another Good Juvenile Colt in Tryster in Maiden Event at Belmont Park

OLD ROSEBUD BEATS FIELD OF SPRINTERS

Former Champion Runs Six Index. Furlongs in 1.11 2-5 in Babylon Handicap.

BY HENRY V. KING.

«Although the fields were small there was some good racing at Brimont Park 328 yesterday afternoon. The Bouquet selling stakes for two-year-olds at five forongs and the Babylon highweight andicap at six furiongs were the features of the card. The Bouquet went to Richard T. Wilson's Ramkin and the highweight event to Old Rosebud.

Both of these races furnished keen mpetition, but it was in the last race that most interest centred. As on Wednesday, it brought out some colts and filles which are candidates for the rich classies to be decided later in the black colt named Tryster, by Peter Pan and Tryst, was returned the winner. He carried Harry Payne Whitney's silice to an easy victory. Tryster ran like a good colt. He raced ahead of his opponents until a sixteenth of a mile from home. There he draw away and won eased up by five lengths. Hildur, a black colt by Shoot On and Shelby Belle, fin-ished second, and Mrs. Payne Whitney's Touch Me Not was third.

Touch Me Not is one of the best look-ing filles seen in these parts in several years. She has a world of speed, but she is not reliable. She is a slow breaker and in all of her recent trials boite scross the track. Because of the tre-mendous speed she displayed in her morning workout she and Irish Sea, her stable mate, were made the favorites. But they were not heavily backed and at post time Tryster had as many supporters as they. Touch Me Not ran a good race. She raced green and swerved all over the track but despite these faults her great speed carried her home in third place.

Irish Sea, which Mrs. Whitney bought for $22,500 as a yearling last summer, was practically left at the post and did not get a chance to display her best

Good Sprinters in the Babylon.

The Babylon brought together some of the best sprinters in training. So nicely were he weights adjusted that every horse in the race was considered to have a good chance of victory. In the opinion of most handleappers it was the most open race this season. Mrs. Payne Whitney's Peter Piper was as-signed the place of honor with 134 pounds. He ran a slashing race, but the heavy impost proved a trifle too much for him and, after leading for five fur-longs, faltered and Old Rosebud, which was shouldering only 123 pounds, came along and beat him home by a length and a half. James Fitzsimmons's Leaing Star, racing to his best form, out gamed the remainder of the field and was an easy third. Old Rosebud steppe down the straight six furlong course

Ramkin secred a sensational victor in the Bouquet, and that he earned the major portion of the purse was due to large part to Clarence Turner, who rod Turner put up a Loftus fin

Pavorite Gets Bad Start.

For the second time in two days a favorite was practically left at the post, On Wednesday Alibi propped when the barrier went up and Fator made no ef-fort to go on with him. Yesterday Chasseur refused to go on his way with his field until the leaders were many lengths in front of him. Then he raced along leisurely and finished third. Murgiverely reprimanded for his tactics at the post.

Phalaris, ridden by Fator, a five-year-cid maiden, won the purse, with Orderly second. Although Phalaris had never won a race he was heavily backed. He rewarded the small coterie who placed much confidence in him by taking to such a boxer. the lead at the start and making every post a winning one.

Hamkin, apparently benten a furious from the finish, stood a drive gamely and was up again in the closing strides. Polythia, never far from the pace, hung slightly right at the end. Bry Moon showed good speed all the way. Episode was in close quarters early and was stopping at the end. Ballot Car swerved hadly in the running and was never a contender. Phainris had all the speed and, stealing uway into a long, early lead, was at no time threatened to win, with pienty to spare. Orderly had no excuse, hung badly in the final drive and just lasted to save the place. Chasseur was probably best. Murray was very slow getting him away from the barrier. He raced to his horses on his own courage, and Murray was of no help in the stretch. Keen Jane, outrus early, closed some ground. ELLINGTON, New Zealand, May 27.—Auckland has VV been chosen as the scene of the next Davis Cup challenge round by the New Zealand Lawn Tennis Association, which recommends that the tournament be held December 20 to December 24.

Davis Cup Challengs

Round at Auckland

According to an agreement reached between the Australian and New Zealand tennis associations several years ago New Zealand is entitled to the Davis Cup challenge ound this year. The Australians tried to prevail upon the New Zealand officials recently to yield the event to Sydney principally on account of the damp climate at Auckland, but New Zealand refused to grant the request.

It will be remembered that on the occasion of the last visit of the American team to New Zealand William A. Larned, at that time American champion, was so greatly affected by climatic conditions that of his matches to a substitute.

VANITIE OFF FOR THE EAST TO-DAY

Hauled Out of Greenpoint-Shamrock IV.'s Mast Stepped

Of the vachts engaged in the Amerca's Cup contest, the Vanitie, was the only one to show real activity yesterday. the afternoon Rear Commodore George Nichols took the picturesque loop out for a spin off Glen Cove, on the Sound, where she showed her ability to foot fast in moderate weather. She George Raisey, and which she will fly against the Resolute in the trial races. Early this morning the Vanitle will leave [Glero Cove for Change and Cover for Change and Cover for Change and Change a Gien Cove for Greenport, where she will be hauled out and shined up before going to Newport for the test against the stillete and aviator who was killed in scobs's yard, City Island, had a busy lay of it yesterday. In the forenoon the oig hollow wooden mast was stepped on the challenger. Before the men quit rork for the day the sail and spars were bundled abroad and everything done to racer in shape for her practice work.
